

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Friday Morning Men's Bible study meets at 6 AM for about an hour and will begin a new study June 3. In Love Does, Bob Goff shares remarkable stories from his life and shows how living and loving to the fullest is the best way to make Jesus known in this world. We would love to have more men join us. Contact Scott Granville with questions.

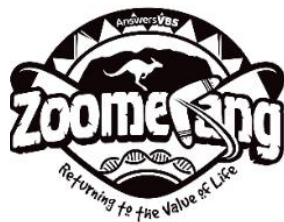

Showers of Blessings! We would like to welcome to our congregation: Raidor McPeck, son of Connor & Katelyn. Please help us welcome him by placing any cards or gifts on the umbrella shower table.

Grace Sargent and Ethan Ogan will be serving as summer missionaries at Victory Center Bible Camp. Prayer and financial support would be much appreciated, as these full-time volunteer positions do not allow us to have a summer job. For more information, pick up our camp support letters at the welcome center.

VBS Prayer Calendar

If you would like to pray for the 2022 Vacation Bible School here at CBC, a prayer calendar is available at the Welcome Center.

On June 1, CBC will be switching from our current app, Tithely, to the Church Center app.

The Deacons have approved replacing Tithely with the Church Center app to consolidate our administrative programs and save costs. The Church Center app will allow us to have a one-stop shop for you to manage your profile information, on-line donations (if you use it), events you have registered for, your volunteer schedule, and access to the church directory. The Church Center app is free and can be downloaded to iOS or Android.

WHAT WE BELIEVE

~ That Jesus is the Son of God who became a man to die for the sins of the whole world; He was raised from the dead and ascended back to heaven; He is coming again. (1 Cor 15: 1-8)
 ~ That the Bible is the inspired word of God and is the only authority for our faith (what we believe) and practice (how we are to live). (2 Tim 3:16) ~ That every person has worth as a creation of God, but that all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God. (Rom 3:23) ~ That forgiveness of sins, the promise of eternal life and an abundant life are available to those who believe that Jesus Christ is Savior and Lord. (Jn 3:16) ~ That those accepting Christ shall repent of sin, confess faith, and be baptized into Him. (Rom 10:9; Acts 2:38) ~ That the Church exists to provide for the spiritual growth of the people and to see that the Gospel is preached to everyone. (Eph 4:1-16) ~ That Jesus Christ will one day return to earth and reign forever as King of kings and Lord of lords. (1 Thess. 4:13-18)

“FROM PULPIT & PAPER”

On Armchair Quarterbacking

In this digital age, where everyone’s opinion can be expressed, social media is rife with armchair quarterbacks who tear into others without understanding the issues on which they opine or offering viable solutions to the problems at hand. This behavior is not Christlike. Proverbs 18:2 states, “A fool takes no pleasure in understanding, but only in expressing his opinion.” Armchair quarterbacking entails being foolish in speech by offering uninformed and useless opinions.

A funny story to illumine this point. D. L. Moody was once criticized for his evangelism methods. His reply was, “I agree with you, I don’t like the way I do it either. Tell me how you evangelize.” The woman, who had criticized Moddy, replied, “I don’t share the gospel,” to which Moody responded, “I like my way of doing it better than your way of not doing it.” As this story illustrates, it’s far easier to offer criticisms than solutions.

It’s fine to have opinions and criticisms. We need to think critically about life. The Bible commands this (Rom 12:2; 2 Cor 10:5). Nevertheless, all of us must season our judgements with a healthy self-understanding of our ignorance. We all know far less than we think we know. We must avoid opining about issues we don’t understand. Further, if we don’t have anything constructive to say, it might be best to be quiet. “Even a fool who keeps silent is considered wise; when he closes his lips, he is deemed intelligent” (Prov 17:28).

New Sunday School Classes Starting Today May 29th

Led by: Rick Vallery

As 1st Corinthians show of repentance was reported to Paul, Paul wrote a second letter encouraging the Corinthians to continue following Christ as the One and only God and rejecting different false teachers. As we study 2nd Corinthians, we will explore Paul's encouraging letter and how to make life application in our own walk with God.

Led by: Sara Ogan/Kathryn Sumner

Women's Class

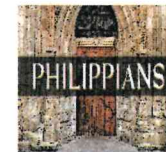

Grace: a study on Ephesians for Women. The Apostle Paul writes to remind the Ephesians (and us today) of our position in the family of God, and how to behave as members of that family. This letter carries priceless truths about our identity in Christ, and our calling in His body. Paul encourages the believers to be imitators of God (Eph 5:1); therefore, we are to treat one another in like manner. This study points the way into the biblical text, offering a clear and effective guide...to encourage readers to listen well to God's inspired Word.
