WHAT WE BELIEVE

~ That Jesus is the Son of God who became a man to die for the sins of the whole world; He was raised from the dead and ascended back to heaven; He is coming again. (1 Cor 15: 1-8)
 ~ That the Bible is the inspired word of God and is the only authority for our faith (what we believe) and practice (how we are to live). (2 Tim 3:16) ~ That every person has worth as a creation of God, but that all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God. (Rom 3:23) ~ That forgiveness of sins, the promise of eternal life and an abundant life are available to those who believe that Jesus Christ is Savior and Lord. (Jn 3:16) ~ That those accepting Christ shall repent of sin, confess faith, and be baptized into Him. (Rom 10:9; Acts 2:38) ~ That the Church exists to provide for the spiritual growth of the people and to see that the Gospel is preached to everyone. (Eph 4:1-16) ~ That Jesus Christ will one day return to earth and reign forever as King of kings and Lord of lords. (1 Thess. 4:13-18)

Tradeoffs

I am not an economist, but I enjoy reading them. My favorite is Thomas Sowell. He makes this profound comment I'd like us to consider:

"There are no solutions, only tradeoffs. You try to get the best trade-offs you can get. That's all you can hope for."

Though Sowell does not communicate this idea from a Christian perspective, his comment still proves accurate.

With every decision we make, there is some cost we accrue. In this fallen and broken world, suffering is inevitable. No matter where you go, no matter what you do, no matter what decision you make, difficulty will ensue. The Bible even says that following Christ will result in hardship (2 Tim 3:12). Certainly, that is a tradeoff we should accept, but, nevertheless, it is a tradeoff.

Biblical wisdom entails growing in our understanding of the tradeoffs of life. Biblical wisdom entails matching our expectations to the difficulties of life. Don't seek perfect solutions. They don't exist. Seek God-honoring tradeoffs. A life of no difficulty or suffering is coming (Rev 21:4), but we're not there yet. In the meantime, choose the tradeoff that most glorifies the Lord.
