WHAT WE BELIEVE

~ That Jesus is the Son of God who became a man to die for the sins of the whole world; He was raised from the dead and ascended back to heaven; He is coming again. (1 Cor 15: 1-8)
 ~ That the Bible is the inspired word of God and is the only authority for our faith (what we believe) and practice (how we are to live). (2 Tim 3:16) ~ That every person has worth as a creation of God, but that all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God. (Rom 3:23) ~ That forgiveness of sins, the promise of eternal life and an abundant life are available to those who believe that Jesus Christ is Savior and Lord. (Jn 3:16) ~ That those accepting Christ shall repent of sin, confess faith, and be baptized into Him. (Rom 10:9; Acts 2:38) ~ That the Church exists to provide for the spiritual growth of the people and to see that the Gospel is preached to everyone. (Eph 4:1-16) ~ That Jesus Christ will one day return to earth and reign forever as King of kings and Lord of lords. (1 Thess. 4:13-18)

“FROM PULPIT & PAPER”

We're All Theologians

The seminary is often viewed as that institution that produces theologians. There's truth to this, of course. Theological institutions aid Christians in their pursuit of theological maturity. However, you can be a theologian and not go to an academic institution. In fact, all of us are theologians.

The Bible says we are made in the image of God (Gen 1:27) As such, it is impossible to not have theological thoughts. We all think about God and His ways. This makes us all theologians. Even the atheist, who denies God, thinks (incorrect) theological thoughts. Unfortunately, far too many Christians remain apathetic towards their beliefs and unaware of what they believe. This is a problem to be addressed, not a situation to be embraced. Doctrine matters. A lot.

This theological calling is a responsibility we must steward well. Certainly, God does not call all of us to be professional or academic theologians, but all of us, whether we like or not, whether we do it well or poorly, are theologians. We need to raise the theological bar in our church and in all gospel-preaching churches by reminding ourselves of our theological calling. Don't shirk this responsibility. Embrace it.
