WHAT WE BELIEVE

~ That Jesus is the Son of God who became a man to die for the sins of the whole world; He was raised from the dead and ascended back to heaven; He is coming again. (1 Cor 15: 1-8)
 ~ That the Bible is the inspired word of God and is the only authority for our faith (what we believe) and practice (how we are to live). (2 Tim 3:16) ~ That every person has worth as a creation of God, but that all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God. (Rom 3:23) ~ That forgiveness of sins, the promise of eternal life and an abundant life are available to those who believe that Jesus Christ is Savior and Lord. (Jn 3:16) ~ That those accepting Christ shall repent of sin, confess faith, and be baptized into Him. (Rom 10:9; Acts 2:38) ~ That the Church exists to provide for the spiritual growth of the people and to see that the Gospel is preached to everyone. (Eph 4:1-16) ~ That Jesus Christ will one day return to earth and reign forever as King of kings and Lord of lords. (1 Thess. 4:13-18)

“FROM PULPIT & PAPER”

What The Text Does Not Say

One principle of Bible interpretation I’ve mentioned several times from the pulpit is to look for what the text does not say. The Bible makes tons of assertions. To further understand these assertions, we need to understand what ideas these assertions oppose. This principle of interpretation results from the law of noncontradiction, which maintains: if an assertion is true, its opposite is false.

So, for example, when I saw, “God is good,” I am at the same time saying, “God is not evil, vindictive, manipulative, wicked, dishonest, or untrustworthy.” Assertions result in denials. It’s these denials that the “look at what the text does not say” principle brings out.

Let’s look at a portion of a passage I will explore in this morning’s sermon—Acts 1:8b. Jesus says to the disciples, “You will be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth.” What’s the opposite of what Jesus says here? One opposite idea is this: Jesus tells the apostles to not remain in Jerusalem. Rather, they will go to “the ends of the earth.” This contrary idea means that the gospel is not just for Jews, but for Gentiles as well. It means that the gospel will one day come to Pierre, SD. It means that God’s purposes in the NT are different than the OT. Lots of theological meat is packed into what Jesus does not say.

As you read Scripture, ask yourself, “What does this passage not say and what further truth can I see in light of the law of noncontradiction?” I imagine you will find Scripture come more to life with this interpretive principle.
