

ANNOUNCEMENTS

On the 1st Sunday of each month, we have "NAME TAG SUNDAY," where we ask everyone in attendance to wear a name tag. Help us to get to know you! Name tags are available at the end of each row. Please keep sharpies away from children and in containers during the service.

VBS Help Still Needed: CBC needs your help with VBS Staff positions! We are still in need of adult class leaders for a couple of age groups: 5 year olds, 1st Grade and 3rd /4th Grade Boys. Leading a class is a simple task as you bring kids from station to station and supervise; there is no teaching involved. Please help us fill these positions! Help can also be used as class assistants, in games or in snacks.

VBS Staff T-Shirts: VBS Staff T-Shirts are available for pickup TODAY in the lobby. Please see Katelyn Todd to pick up your Staff Shirt.

Ladies, once summer heats up, why not relax inside with a good book?

Please consider joining us on Saturday, July 13 at 10 a.m. for a discussion of "The Extraordinary Deaths of Mrs. Kip," by Sara Brunsvold. We will meet in the foyer area for coffee and discussion. If you would like to pre-order a book, please sign up at the Welcome Center by June 9. The book cost is $12. The order will be placed on June 10, and we will let you know when they arrive.

Nyah Ogan and Grace Sargent will be serving as summer missionaries at Victory

Center Bible Camp. Prayer and financial support would be much appreciated, as these full-time volunteer positions do not allow us to have a summer job. For more information, pick up our camp support letters at the Welcome Center. Online giving is available at www.victorycenterbiblecamp.com.

Prayer sheets for the missionaries going to Mexico can be found at the Welcome Center. Please take one home and pray for that missionary for the duration of the trip, June 7th-16th.

The Deacons have declared 8 older tables as surplus. These are set aside in the gym, next to room 202, and are available FREE to the CBC family. Contact a Deacon if you have any questions.

WHAT WE BELIEVE

~ That Jesus is the Son of God who became a man to die for the sins of the whole world; He was raised from the dead and ascended back to heaven; He is coming again. (1 Cor 15: 1-8)
 ~ That the Bible is the inspired word of God and is the only authority for our faith (what we believe) and practice (how we are to live). (2 Tim 3:16) ~ That every person has worth as a creation of God, but that all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God. (Rom 3:23) ~ That forgiveness of sins, the promise of eternal life and an abundant life are available to those who believe that Jesus Christ is Savior and Lord. (Jn 3:16) ~ That those accepting Christ shall repent of sin, confess faith, and be baptized into Him. (Rom 10:9; Acts 2:38) ~ That the Church exists to provide for the spiritual growth of the people and to see that the Gospel is preached to everyone. (Eph 4:1-16) ~ That Jesus Christ will one day return to earth and reign forever as King of kings and Lord of lords. (1 Thess. 4:13-18)

MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

“What We Need Most Is What We Desire Least”

Often, our needs and desires diverge, creating a tug-of-war within us (Rom 7:15–16). What we know we should do clashes with what we want to do. When I get discouraged, I want to do very little. Inaction and “zoning out” is very easy for me when I’m feeling blue. However, what I need most is activity, effort, exertion, focus. In these moments, this paradox arises: what I need the most I desire the least. Ever felt this way?

As we all know, feelings are fickle. They change so quickly. Because of this, feelings serve as an inadequate compass for decision making. If we “follow our heart,” we’ll end up in a bad place! Instead of constantly trusting our emotional state, a more faithful guide to decision-making are our convictions. Piggy backing on what brother Rick said last week, convictions don’t change. If they do, they’re not convictions! These convictions motivate us to do what is right, even when doing the right thing is least appealing.

Bringing this to bear upon our Christian faith. Temptation is inevitable (Luke 17:1). While feelings come and go, Spirit-given convictions persist. Thus, anchor your life to convictions, not to feelings. For in convictions, we find not only stability but also the courage to do what is right, even when it’s the hardest thing to do.
