WHAT WE BELIEVE

~ That Jesus is the Son of God who became a man to die for the sins of the whole world; He was raised from the dead and ascended back to heaven; He is coming again. (1 Cor 15: 1-8)
 ~ That the Bible is the inspired word of God and is the only authority for our faith (what we believe) and practice (how we are to live). (2 Tim 3:16) ~ That every person has worth as a creation of God, but that all have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God. (Rom 3:23) ~ That forgiveness of sins, the promise of eternal life and an abundant life are available to those who believe that Jesus Christ is Savior and Lord. (Jn 3:16) ~ That those accepting Christ shall repent of sin, confess faith, and be baptized into Him. (Rom 10:9; Acts 2:38) ~ That the Church exists to provide for the spiritual growth of the people and to see that the Gospel is preached to everyone. (Eph 4:1-16) ~ That Jesus Christ will one day return to earth and reign forever as King of kings and Lord of lords. (1 Thess. 4:13-18)

The Bible’s Pointers

When we read the Bible, we should observe the different pointers that the Bible gives us. Sometimes the Bible gives us internal pointers by directing our attention to the Bible itself. We see a great example of this in 2 Tim 3:6, which reads, “All Scripture is breathed out by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, and for training in righteousness.” Other passages that demonstrate the Bible’s internal pointers include Josh 1:8, Ps 1:2, Ps 19:7–13, and Heb 4:12.

At other times, the Bible gives us external pointers. That is, the Bible sometimes directs our attention outside of itself. We saw this when we studied Rom 1:26 last week. In this passage, Paul directs our attention to the natural order as he argues that homosexuality is wrong because it is “contrary to nature.” Also, in Rom 1:20, Paul gives us another external pointer when he states that God reveals His truth to us “in the things that have been made.” Paul continues this argument from the natural order in Rom 2:14–15, when he argues that God reveals His law to mankind through the conscience. God has written His law on our hearts by engraving His testimony deep inside our human person.

The Bible gives us both internal and external pointers. That is, the Bible directs our attention to itself and outside itself. We should recognize and study both pointers—never excluding the internal or the external. In Rom 1 and 2, the Bible encourages us to contemplate what God reveals in creation, the natural order, and the human conscience. Be cognizant of the different directions the Bible points us, for God reveals Himself both in the Bible and outside the Bible.

The Deacon Board recently purchased a 2nd AED machine for the church.

The NEW locations of the AED machines are:

1. Across the hallway west of the Welcome Center, next to the large bulletin board.
2. In the Gym Kitchen. Entering the kitchen from the gym, look straight west across the kitchen and see it on the west wall.

It has been a couple years since we have provided any First Aid Training and plan to offer the training again.

The training is a 2 hour class. It includes operation of the AED machine, CPR, Air Way positioning and some basic First Aid. Maria Hays is the instructor. She's a certified instructor for the American Red Cross Association. This class is free for anyone wanting just the training. If you want a Certification Card good for 2 years, there is a $60 fee.

Classes will be offered on 3 different dates and times.

|-------------------------------|----------|----------------|
| 1. Nov. 3rd | Thursday | 6:30 – 8:30 pm |
| 2. Nov. 5th | Saturday | 10 am – Noon |
| 3. Nov. 6th | Sunday | 3 – 5 pm |

Each class is limited to eight people. Sign-up at the Welcome Center for the day and time that works best for you.

We are encouraging leaders and teachers within the church to strongly consider this training opportunity to have multiple people ready to step in to help in case of an emergency.
